ALTER'S UNABRIDGED VISUAL DICTIONARY

HOW NOT TO READ THIS BOOK

1. THIS IS NOT ORGANIZED ACCORDING TO SEASONS. OR TOPICS. OR WHIMS. OR BRIBES.
2. IT IS AN INTERPRETATIVE DICTIONARY. HENCE, ROUGHLY ALPHABETICAL — AT LEAST THE LETTERS ARE IN ORDER! BE BOLD!
3. IF YOU ARE PLAYFUL, NUMINOUS, AWARE — LET THIS BOOK REVEAL ITSELF. USE THE AVANTE GARDE INDEX. IF YOU LIKE CONTROL AND LACK OF KARMIC INVENTION IN YOUR LIFE — THE CONVENTIONAL INDEX IS FOR YOU.

Alter's 1974-75 Wrestling Team was dominated by underclassmen, 1st year wrestlers, & individual performances. Experience had to be gained the hard way & the result was an over all team record of 1-9 in dual meets. Most valuable wrestler was P. Graham. Most improved wrestler was C. Valentine. The coaches have reason to be optimistic in the future.

ALTER HIGH FREQUENCY

"This is WKET, 89.5 on the dial, broadcasting from Alter High School." These familiar words began emanating from one of Alter's confessionals in early May as our radio dream became reality. Truly a grass-roots effort--donations of lumber, records, time, money, and voices--WKET is our leap into public broadcasting. When the mikes, wires, antennae, and licenses are all ready to go "on the air," here's hoping that 89.5 FM will become a land mark on YOUR dial.

CATCH ALL-its just another day here at alter high nothing to see or do or think i am so bored everything is plain and ordinary i can't wait to leave this place no one around here uses their imagination they just shuffle from one class to another i am tired of this bokonofskified atmosphere these halls are so crowded i have to push my way through everyone is so noisy what am i going to do ?????????? this page is here that you might open your eyes and see the people who are human the ones who laugh and dance and cry and pretend and act and be . . . catch all there is to see catch all there is to do and relax enough to "be" .

CATCH-ALL

to deafen with a loud noise; also, to render stunning cacophony melifluous, thus inspiring huddled masses to break free into rhythmic clapping, stomping harmonics calculated to activate "Win fever" in the conquering Knights and strike deadly fear into the hearts of all adversaries. The pep band, forsooth.

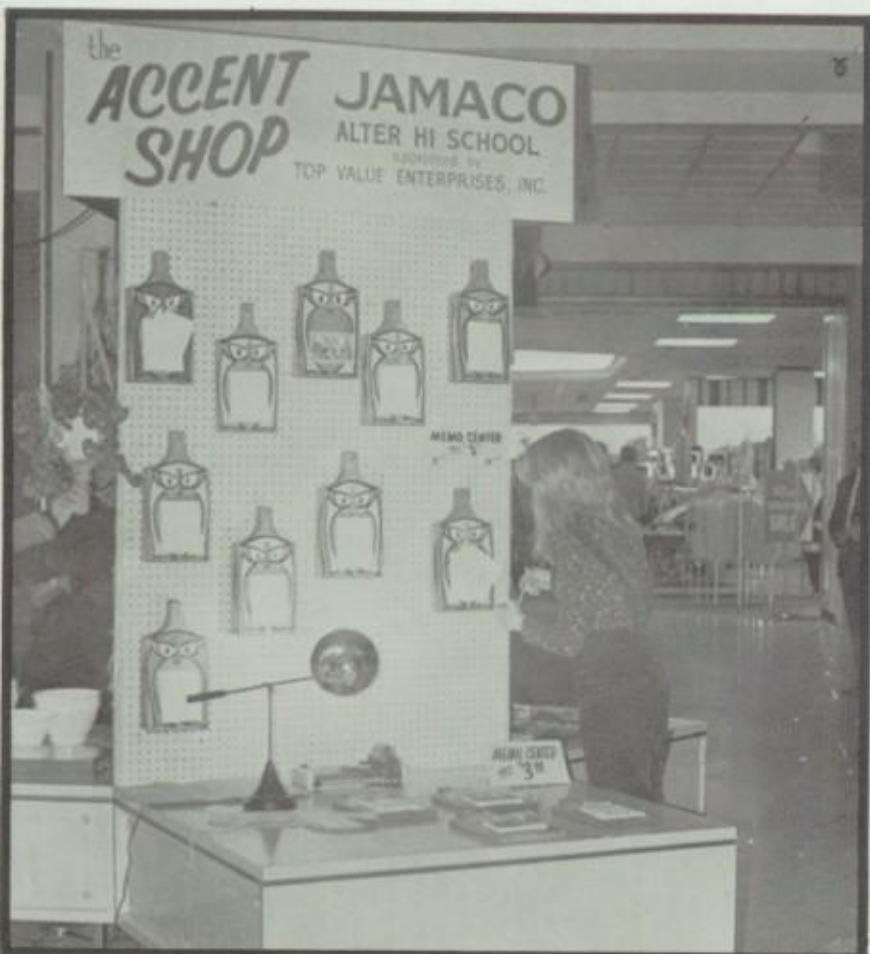

ENTERPRISING ENTREPRENEURS

Junior Achievement gives students practical business experience in management, sales and other business endeavors. Three companies exist at Alter: Alsico, Jamaco, and Sojaco, moderated by Mr. Jim Siewe and Mrs. Suellen Henry. This year, two Alter students were granted special awards by Junior Achievement of Dayton. Jenny Romer was named the Outstanding Young Business Woman of the Year, and Sandy Walton was chosen as the Outstanding Salesperson of the Year.

ECSTATIC - Chauvinists say that behind every successful man there's a woman. But chauvinistic or not, every winning team at Alter is spurred on by crowd support lead by official (and unofficial) cheerleaders. Scream, yell, chant, clap, shoulder stands, splits, gymnastic feats - combined with practice, energy, practice, spirit, practice. Few would deny the effective contribution of both varsity squads and the reserves to Alter's number one tradition.

ELEGANT EXPERIENCE
 - The tradition of having prom at Alter was broken this year as the Class of 76 proudly presented "Moonlight and Roses." The lobby of Winter's Bank Tower was magically transformed into a moonlit rose garden. Dinner was catered and served by the King Cole restaurant while couples danced to the music of the Sunny Good Street band. Though there were some problems, Moonlight & Roses was Alter's best-attended prom and can be considered one of the most successful.

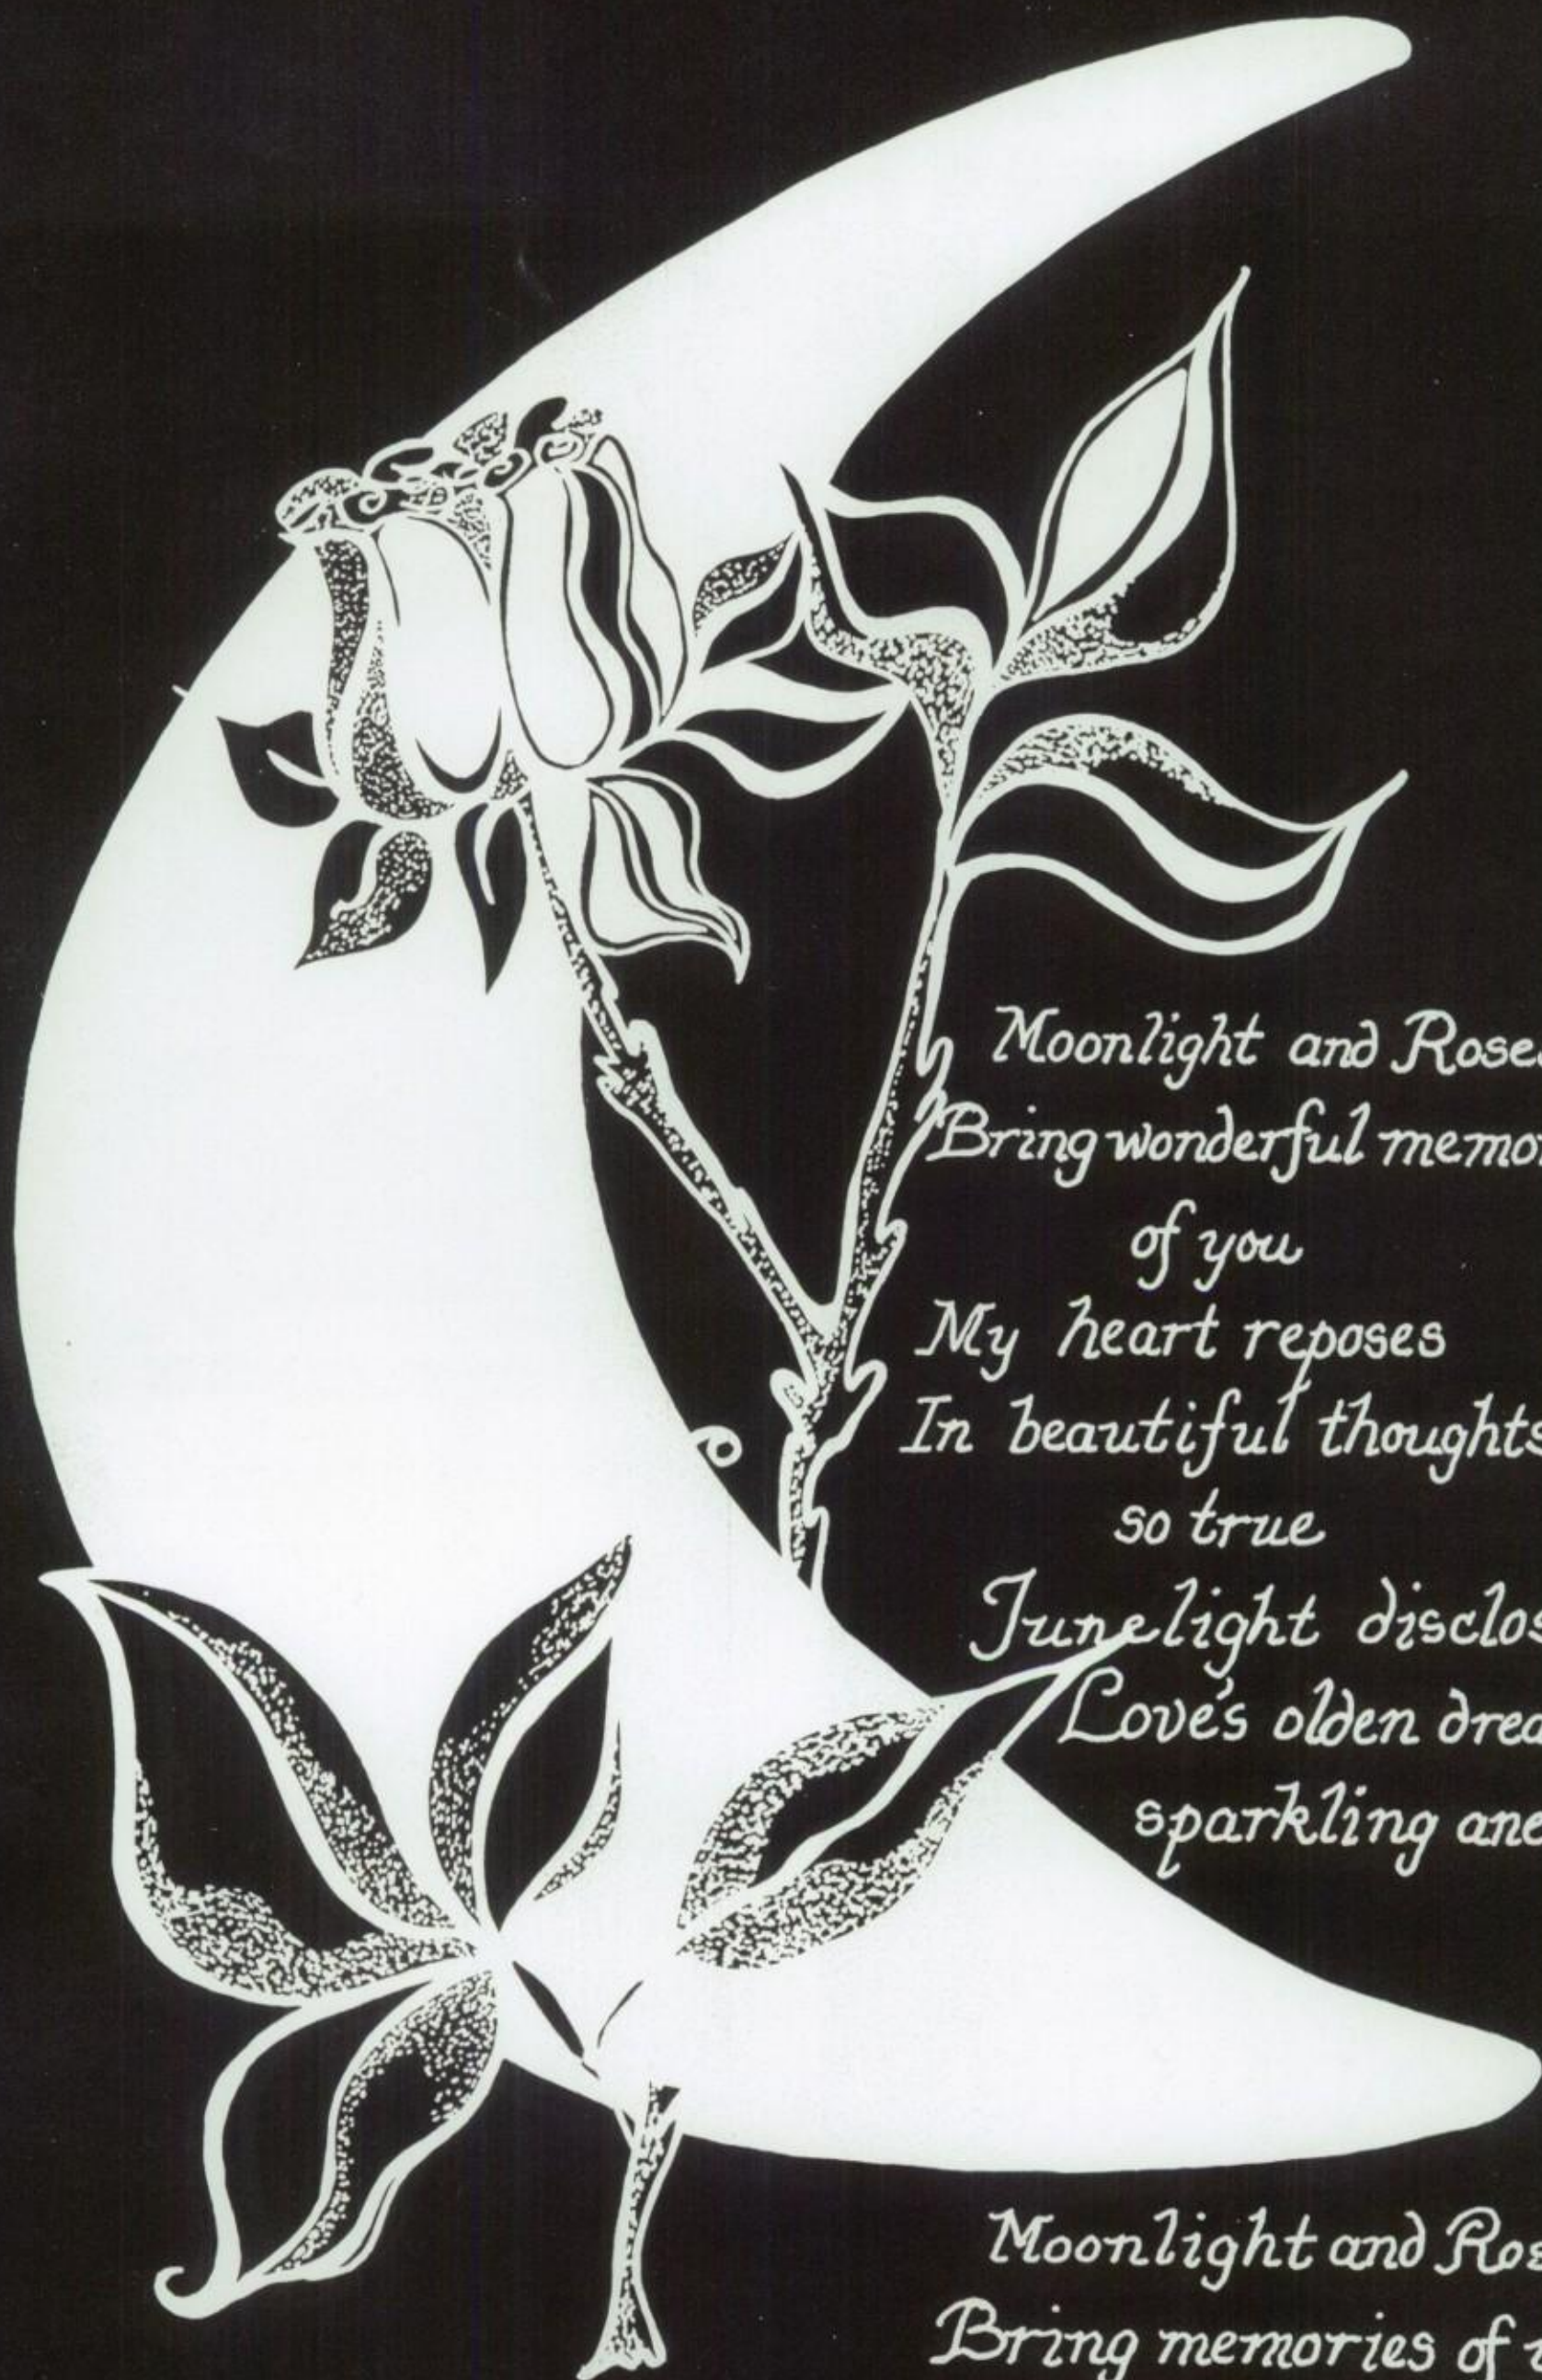

The 1975 Moonlight and Roses court was larger this year due to the close vote. The court included: Queen Terri McEldowney, Jan Suchecki, Patty Myers, Robin Eby, Jenny Romer, Margie Heckman, and Gayle Finke.

MOONLIGHT & ROSES

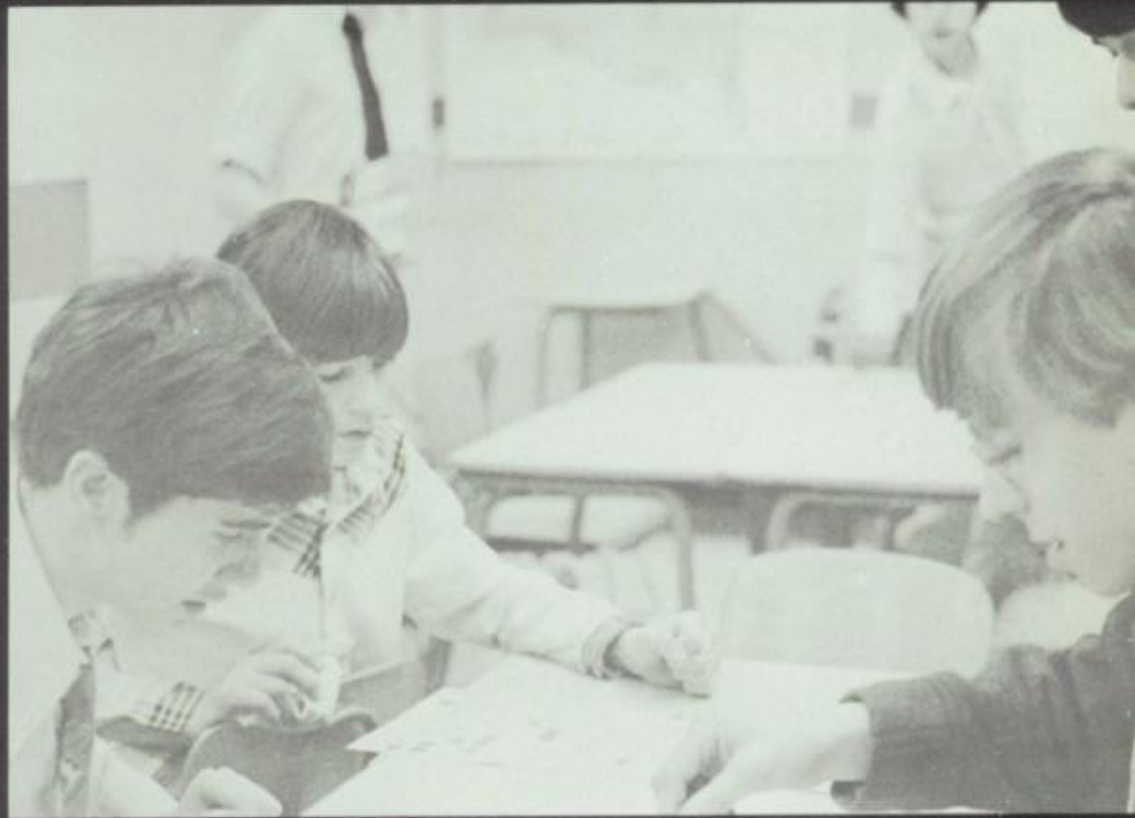

*Moonlight and Roses
Bring wonderful memories
of you
My heart reposes
In beautiful thoughts
so true
Moonlight discloses
Love's olden dreams
sparkling anew*

*Moonlight and Roses
Bring memories of you.*

ENIGMA

ENIGMA - A newly formed group here at Alter, the Strategy and Tactics Club members concentrate on perfecting their skill at chess and other nefarious war games. Strategically and tactfully they plot their next move, patiently waiting for their enemy's first mistake. Insight, precision, and contemplation are all qualities necessary in outmaneuvering the opponent.

EXPLOSIVE EFFORT

Alter's football squad spent at least ten gruelling hours a week building our team into a colossal machine powered by dynamite. On game night the impassioned spirit of both players and fans united to fire the Knights into the greatest explosive effort the world has ever seen.

n., gift of leadership in a unique christian community; talents include ability to roll with punches and mete out a few, humor even when it's not a crisis point, compassion, no need for sleep, keen sense of direction, a contemplative vision of reality even with 1224 Gold Rush freaks,

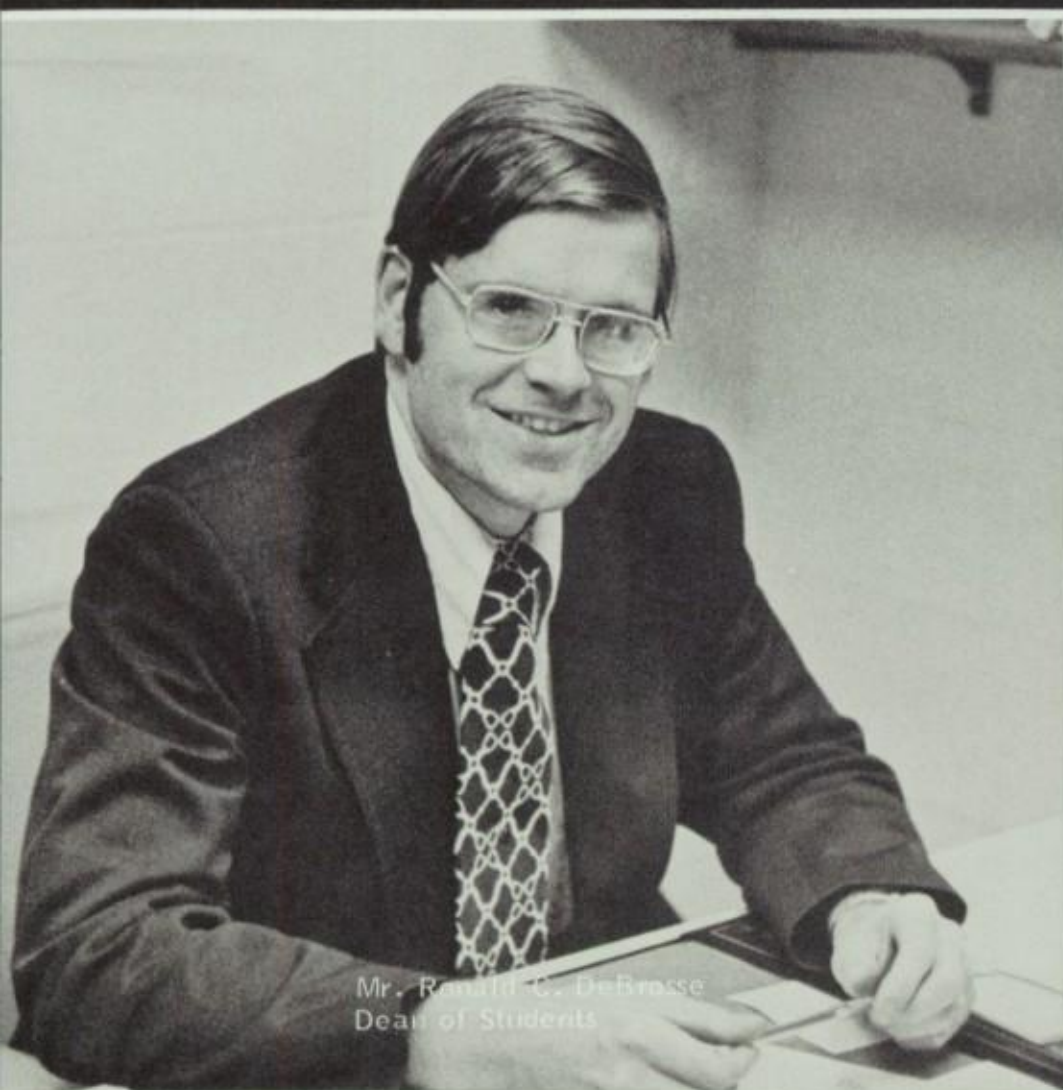

Sister Kathryn Ann Connelly, S.C.
Principal

as in Vice-Principal: calm, firm, co-servant of the Alter community whose expertise includes being person, co-leader of community dialogue, counsellor, senior retreat bus driver/social director, basketball aficionado, public relator, scheduling master, all-time weigher-in of wrestlers, part-time psychiatrist, liturgist, earnest keeper of "The Book" of school activities, Theology Department Chairman, teacher, friend, mentor, behind-the-scenes often, and many more than most ever know

Reverend Gerald Haemmerle
Vice-Principal

Mr. Ronald C. DeBrosse
Dean of Students

as in Dean of Students: one whose gift is to foster continuing growth through mature choices by the members of the community; allied gifts include patience, compassion, listening to help discern action for the good of the community; a difficult charism but essential for creative growth of the unique individuals within the group; must experience mutual support, charity, justice to deepen christianity.

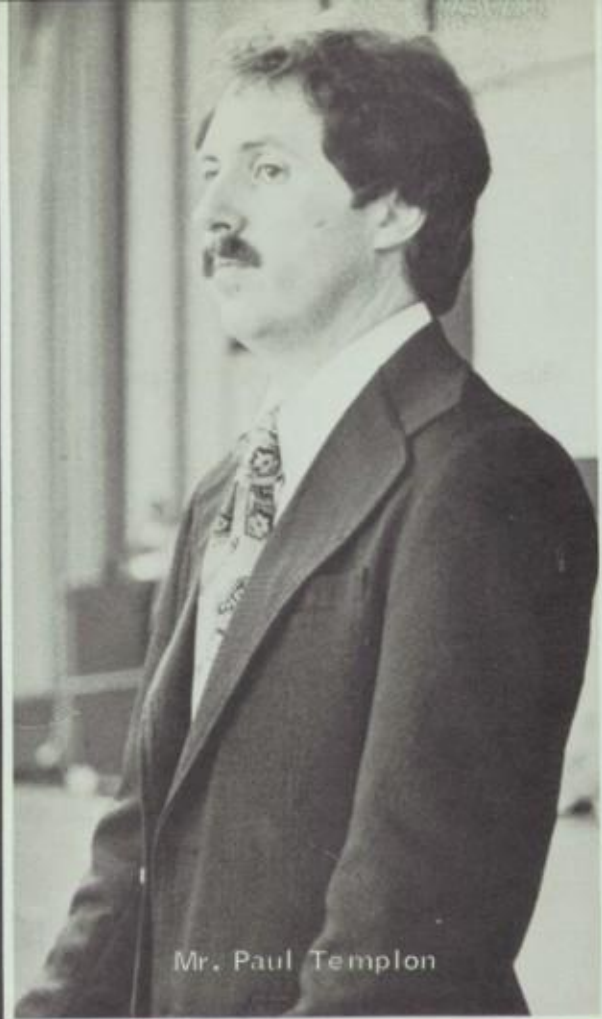

Ms. Karen Martin

Divine madness: art, music, dreams, and love, says Plato. To be seized by the gods and invited to share the divine creative power, summon from No Thing Some Thing that has never existed before nor since. Under the shaping power of the demiurge, breathe a living soul into lifeless clay, paint, chalk, wire, metal, paper-looking from earth to heaven to earth until a true thing about human be-ing leaps from the womb not howling on a great stage of fools but singing of each and every "What I do is me! For that I came!"

Mr. Paul Templon

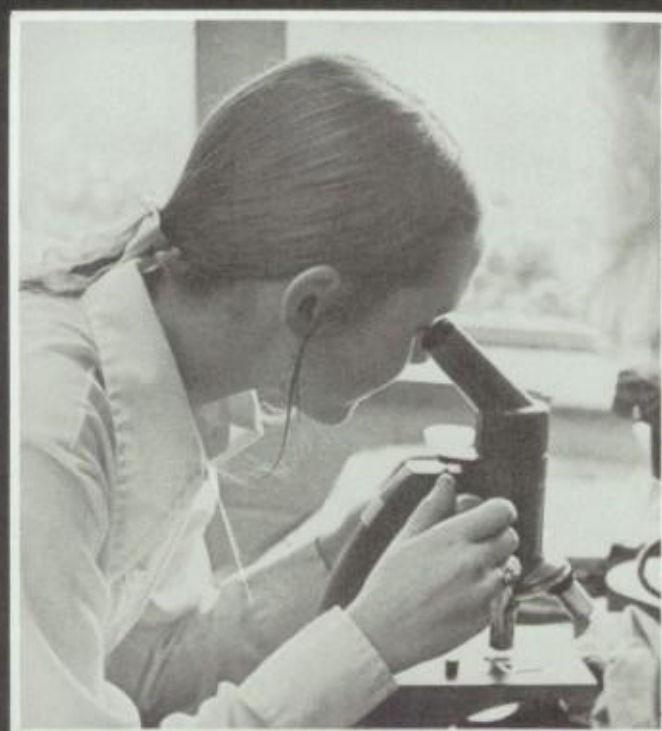

Divine Madness

Kids: they dance before they learn there is anything that isn't music, but ah, Little Prince, we all grow old and deaf by choice, yet the beautiful song continues in mute hearts. But sometimes a vibration, a hint of the song and the time without deafness. A foot taps a hum, a hand breaks silence, arm, eye, soon the whole body in one voice, the God in us triumphs, madness unfetters, together we learn again: everything moves, everything dances, everything sings!

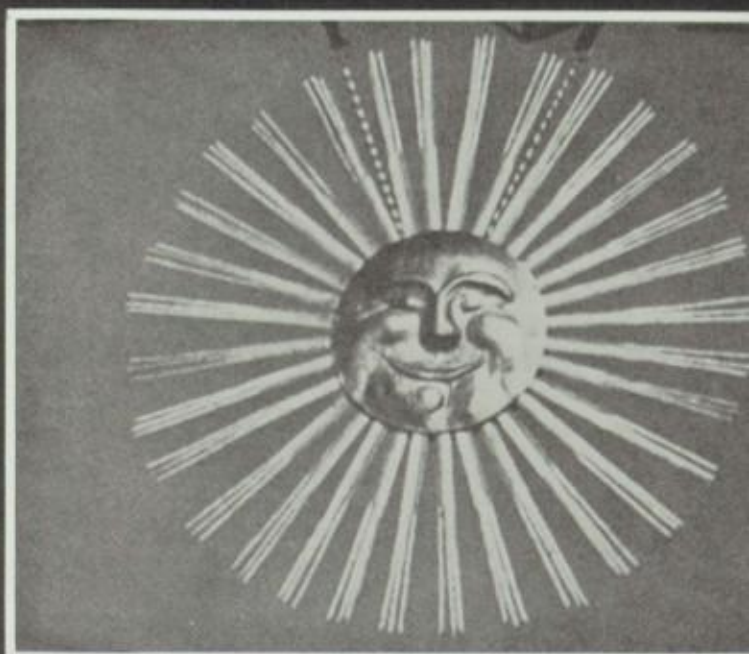

What Archimedes announced as he leapt out of a bath-tub, having cleverly discovered Archimedes' Principle right in his own backyard-strange place for a bath-tub! What scientists keep announcing at those wild moments when the stuff of the universe reveals some new surprise about its inner life. What searchers of the biosphere and noosphere whisper in amazement, in awe, in frustration as one surprise uncovers ten to the nth more mysteries. Sciences: to marvel; a chance to awe, struggle to the death, exhaustion under the yoke of nemesis, amazement at the grandeur of human be-ing as well as humble smiling at our equally puny species in the unmeasured regions of the cosmos; to vibrate with the rhythms of cosmic energy, all things rising to converge in Omega-Ple-roma-Fullness-of-Life

matters of consequence

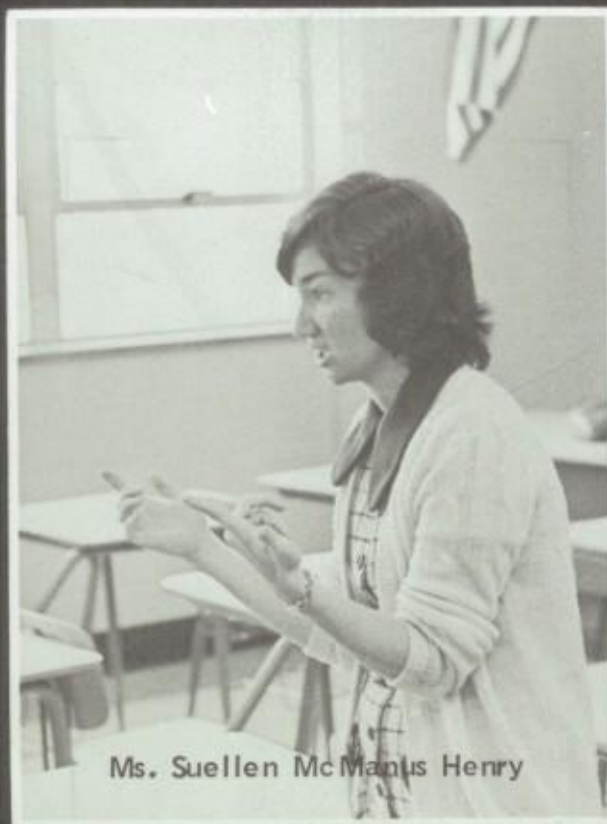

Business education: to learn that even if nobody thought of owning the stars so far and you were the first to think of it that's no excuse to stake a claim to all 6 million of 'em; to learn that the needs of one being unique in all the world are of more consequence than big wheels; to learn that kindness will never make you rich but that's OK.

New Directions

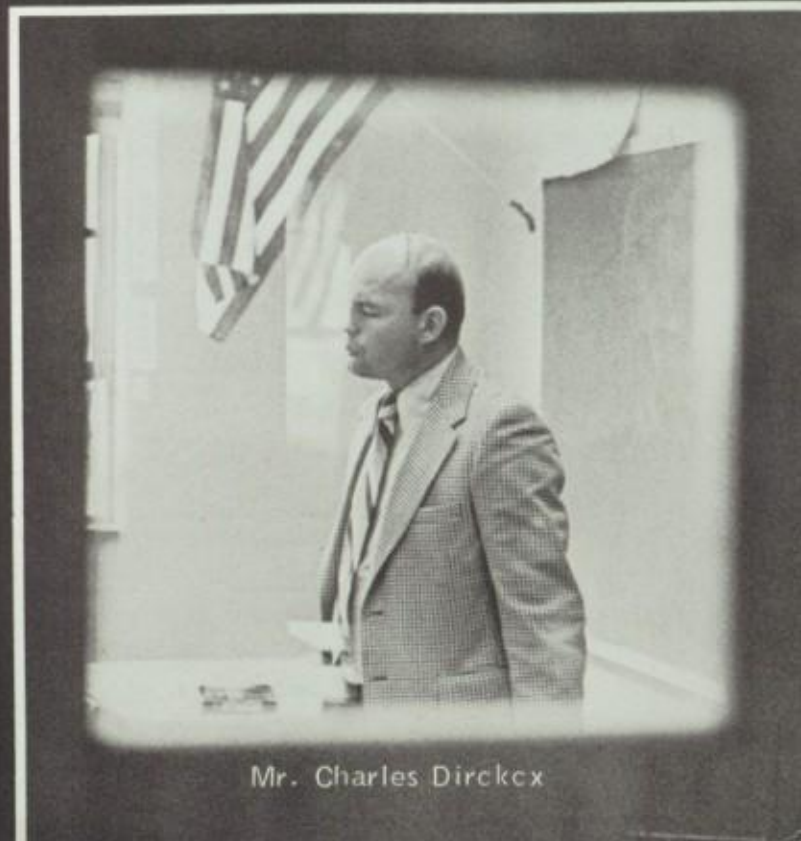

Looking forward into the past or looking backward into the future I walk on the highest hills and I laugh about it all the way. They've all gone to look for america or is it when they find Amerika instead; why the road signs thumb their noses at such stranger-pilgrim-idiots, riders of the purple sage, grey-hounds and such; when every journey seems a return to the same primal mirror whose clouded depths would discourage even Snow White; when an imaginative blackout makes every step the brink or sometimes when an ordinary question needs an unbusy ear; or when your lottery number is 483 or you just want to talk THEN is when. And you enjoy some company at the crossroads, good to know somebody cares about your feelings, your mirages, your ideas--a teacher, advisor, counsellor willing to trust, to be with, to listen, to laugh, to cry, to help create the unique Way to You.

Social Science, the why of: Our sociological theories, political philosophy, political economy derive from an unbroken tradition of great thinkers from 600 B.C. to 1899 A.D. We listen. We envision. We open our mouths and out it comes. It is difficult to be as simple and as natural and as beautiful as we are. Ekstatic consciousness tends to heal divisions between private and public, normal and abnormal. We find that the private world is where we meet.

Symbolic representation of quantitative entities (that is, everything from 2 plus 2 to long division to going on tangents sine and cosine, to x squared, to differential calculus, all of which is helped a great deal by calculated risks) which says Einstein in HYP-ERBOLIC AESTHETICS, is doomed to its rightful place of minor importance in a world where flowers and poetry and beautiful people abound.

Vision Quest

Fast for five days no stereo no radio no polaroids no nothing alone a desert place cry and cry and cry for your vision. Learning how to cry is important even if you're a male person for then you shall call and the Lord will answer; you shall cry and he will say, Here I am. IF you stop being Oppressor, Judge, Foul Mouth, Gossip toward your brothers and sisters. IF you pour yourself out for the hungry and welcome the unloved with all your hearts. THEN your light will rise in the darkness and your gloom will be as the noonday. And the Lord will be your guide, your friend continually and satisfy your desire with good things and make you strong. You shall be like a beautiful garden, like a spring of water whose waters fail not. To cry for vision. Christ: a vision so powerful he persists even in our forgetfulness of him.

Fast n' Fancy Footwear

Fleet feet flying forward fast to finish first. With this idea foremost, Alter's various track teams proceeded throughout the season to fragment former formidable feats and flying fortune's foes far. In all events, from fmedlies to fdiscus, Alter's fellows fought fate & flapdoodle for they would fain gain flagrant fancy fan-fare. With finesse, furious fervent fibre, femur & fibula forged fluidly, frenzy-fraught. For final facts and figures, flip frontward the facing following fascicle.

The Girls' Track Team finished the season with the best record in the school's history. Accomplishments include 6 qualifiers in district competition: Patsy Fagan in the 220, Molly Siggins in the 440, Kathy Miller in the discus and the mile relay team, composed of Mary Ann Stachler, Sharon Gran, Becky Glaser, and Molly Siggins. A new record of 11:11.4 was also set in the two mile relay, a new event at Alter. In dual meets the team beat Centerville, Oakwood, & Lebanon, losing to Jefferson and Valleyview. In invitational competition Alter took first place in the 2 mile relay at the Warrior Relays. At the Wayne Women's Invitational the team made an impressive showing, beating West Carrollton, Fairborn Park Hills, Piqua, and Miamisburg.

The 1975 Girls' Track Team includes:

With an unprecedented number of men qualifying for the Districts and Rick Kuntz and Steve Laufersweiler going to the State Meet, Alter's harriers concluded their most successful season, one marked by individual and team accomplishments. Bill Rankin took first in the long jump at the Troy Indoor Invitational All-Ohio Division. Rick Kuntz went to the State in both the high and long jumps and was rated Outstanding Athlete at the Salzman Relays. Steve Laufersweiler placed third in the State in 180-low hurdles and was third in the Troy Indoor Invitational All-Ohio Division. The team took firsts in the Versailles Invitational, Salzman Relays, and the Sidney Invitational. The thinclads entered the Dayton District Sectional Meet with a balanced showing that garnered second place in Section I.

Alter placed in the top ten in Princeton's Viking Relays (10th), Dayton Relays (7th), Knights of Columbus Relays (6th), Dayton District Meet (7th). Records set during the '75 season are: 120 high hurdles-S Laufersweiler, :14.3; 180 low hurdles, S Laufersweiler, :19.4; high jump, R Kuntz, 6'6"; long jump, B Rankin, 22'6"; 440 yd dash, J Falle, :50.4; 880 yd Relay, B. Rankin, D Seman, M Wildenhaus, J Falle, 1:30.9; Mile relay, D Seman, M Wildenhaus, J Miller, J Falle, 3:28.2; Sprint Medley Relay, B Rankin, S Laufersweiler, M. Wildenhaus, J Falle, 1:35.3; 480 Shuttle hurdles, R Kuntz, J Falle, S Kuntz, S Laufersweiler, :57.0. Coach Jack Ward anticipates another excellent season in '76 with solid returning members.

FRUIT-LOO-PED

Despite their apparent engulfment in oranges and grapefruit this year's Junior class burrowed forth to set new precedents in their presentation of Moonlight and Roses, sports and academic achievements and the purchase of rings and things all of which displayed the Spirit of '76. Their first year as upperclassmen paid off as the fruit-looped collected their fruit loot.

FRATERNAL FELLOWSHIP & FUN

alliterative altruism albeit animated and arduous. Moderated by Mr. William Truxel, members of Key Club completed an exceptionally successful year with record-setting collections at Thanksgiving and Christmas, Chuck Bertini's election as Lieutenant Governor of Ohio Key Clubs, an active membership who carried off food and clothing drives, moving, house painting and repairs, time trials for 634 gym setups and take-downs for lectures and entertainments, classy ushering for senior activities--all performed with attitudes of service and consummate pizzazz. Outreach to Alter and the larger community was hard to match.

Foreign Affairs with a Flair involves the excitement that is found in learning a new language, participating in language fairs, or discovering new facts about neighboring countries throughout the world. Junior Council on World Affairs celebrated UN week with a mock UN assembly. Here, the delegates voted against the proposal of UN control of international oil. JCOWA's next adventure was a smorgasbord in which members feasted on foreign delicacies. After weeks of cutting, painting and building, tissue paper and wood became a Leprachaun Hideaway at the Foreign Bazaar. The booth won 3rd prize and the club took 2nd place in overall competition. Two sponsored movies ended JCOWA's most successful year.

FOR E I GEN FAIR

Flair is the adjective to describe the life and gaiety of Alter's Language Fair. Hours of planning and handiwork created a world of colorful culture.

Spanish dancers, Moulin Rouge Belles, and Gladiators peopled that world. Enticing aromas wafted from the Boulangerie, Patisserie and Taco and Tostada Stands. Music, Narration, and Laughing burst through the air.

Sights, Scents, Sounds, and Savories enveloped onlookers in the language and culture of foreign worlds. For one day visitors enjoyed the Fair. Those who produced it experienced it weeks before and after the Fair.

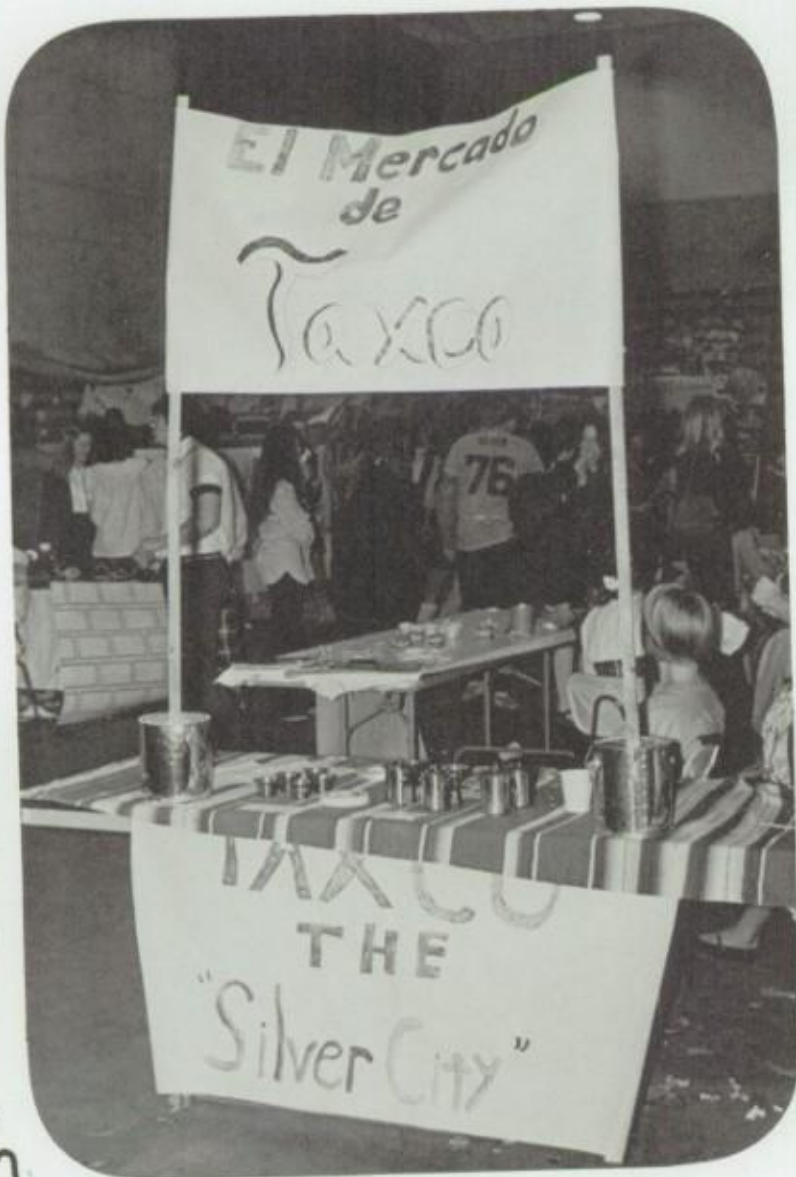

WITCH A FLAIR

It is the education of the heart through culture and understanding that will bring about greatness
in the future.

FOREIGN FARE

WITH A FLAIR

French Club officers C. Novelli, R. Rathweg, M.A. Sprauer, D. Smith and moderator Sr. Nancy Marie enjoyed the help and friendship of all members of the Club though too numerous to name. Words like Pigall's, Carolling, Cuisine, and Tour de France help recall the events and faces of this year. And so for the Spanish Club: Dances and contests and travel to Mexico call memories to the fore and reaffirm old friendships. Language Clubs are people and fun. Members claim Members as "my friends forever."

HALLELUIA

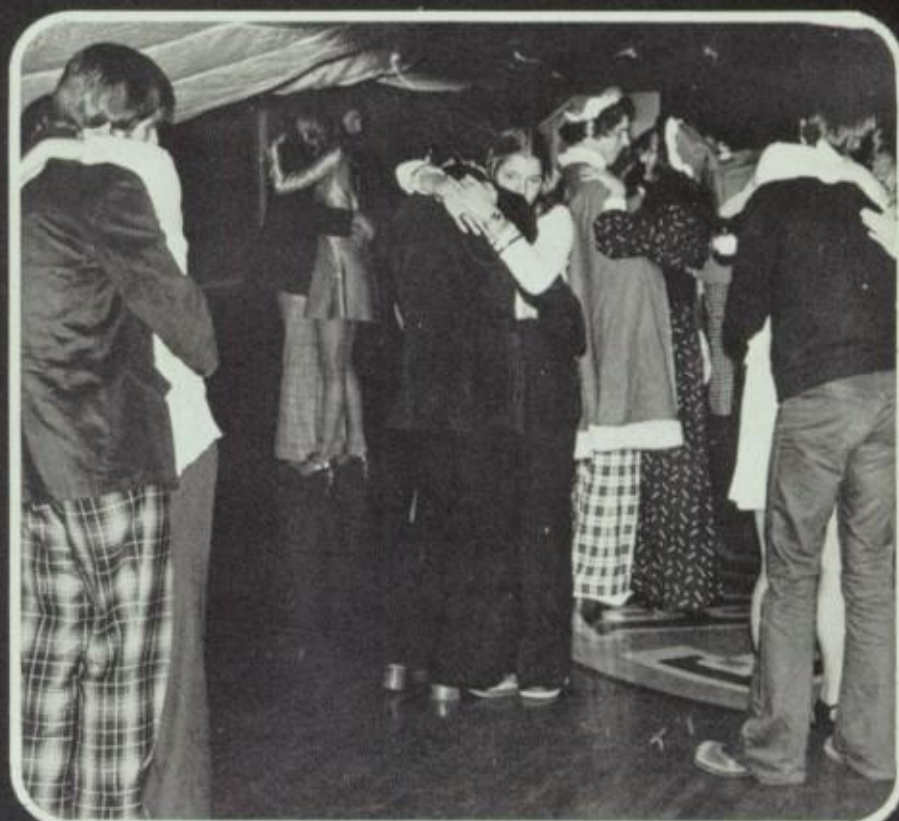

Rejoice the time is here.
Gather around and hear the good news.
Reach for the sky and
shout to the Lord,
"HALLELUIA!"
Sing His praises and play
his tune,
Life is reborn today.
Reach for the sky and
shout to the Lord,
"HALLELUIA!"
Sketch His being, mold His face, create all that is
And reach for the sky and
shout to the Lord,
"HALLELUIA!"

A KNIGHT ON THE TOWN

Did the wheel of fortune spin our way? Did the Knights win the jackpot with their usual sway? Which Lady Lucks won the court and the crown? Who played at the casino with the great sound? The answers to these and more can be found on the next few pages of "Knight on the Town."

Although homecoming is usually considered one big night, it is actually the culmination of many weeks of hard work. This year an experiment was tried with the floats. The freshmen and sophomores constructed a theme float while the juniors and seniors built the court float. The tradition of a bonfire was resurrected from the past to make Homecoming 1975 a roaring success.

LAST SUPPER - May 22, 1975, a date to remember. The graduating class of '75 shared with their parents the Baccalaureate mass and dinner. They "may never pass this way again . . ."

Liberated

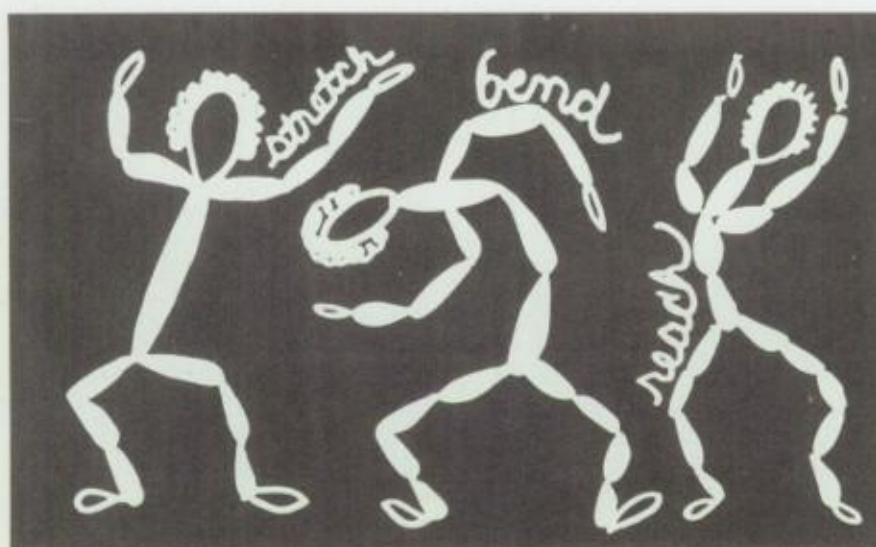

What? Male Chauvinists at Alter? Who do those gorgeous looking legs belong to anyway? Right! None other than Alter's own talented and lovely Plastic Smiles! These beauties made their debut at the Junior-Senior Girls' basketball game. The Seniors won of course but that goes without saying!

PLASTIC

Limbless

LIMBER UP - Triceps, pectoralis, biceps, trapezius and musculus sternocleidomastoideus, taut and controled yet flexible and ready for action. Though the girls participated in only one meet, they showed dedication to the sport and Alter by practicing many hard hours often at inconvenient times. Under the guidance of Coach Cathy Neu the team shows promise for the future.

In September, 19 musicians began transforming notes into a new sound heard around Alter-Jazz. Under the direction of Mr. Bob Quatman, the Jazz Band hosted trumpeter Maynard Ferguson and his orchestra in the first concert of its kind at Alter. The band's other performances under the direction of Mr. Tom Wade included competitions at U.D. and Chaminade-Julienne and performances at a dance, the spring concert, and Urban Suburban Tavern. In seven months, the enthusiasm and interest in jazz begun by nineteen students spread throughout the school.

Thursday, September 5, 1974: Alter fields its first varsity soccer team at Ernst Park. Oh yes, Ernst Park. That's the place the team and coaches had to clear of rocks and a feisty tree stump to have a field. Alter Soccer 1974: They're the ones who went on from an initial season loss to an outstanding record of 13 wins, 2 losses, and one tie. And hey, 11 of those wins were shutouts. Alter Soccer. The Brain Trust. 84% of them made first or second honors. The Balance: 15 of 19 varsity earned letters. Alter Soccer. Were they the ones who had tea and crumpets at the half and spoke with a Limey twang? Coached by Charles Dirckx and volunteer Ron Gatland, Alter's newest addition to the winning tradition proved their mettle throughout the season and concluded by being voted Number One Seed in the Dayton Sectional. Four members were voted to the Dayton Sectional All-Star Team: First Team, Bill Hagerty, Jim Kerezsi, Tim Nauman; Second Team, Bob Enouen. But the highlight of the season had to be that game over Centerville in spitting rain. Playing under the lights, Alter performed to perfection, carrying off a 1-0 victory to convince the 3000 fans and the radio audience (this was the first soccer game ever broadcast in the Dayton area) that Alter and Alter Soccer are really Number One for keeps. With a solid and more literate following, with 20 freshmen and sophomores playing in the SAY league this year, and with the continuing dedication of the coaches, Alter Soccer 1975 promises to be just as strong and intensely competitive as Alter Soccer '74.

MERCURY, the Roman god of travel and messengers; Thus Alter's Cross-Country Team may properly be dubbed members of the Mercuric Tradition. Long distance runners of steadfast endurance and dedicated desire to win faced their most competitive schedule ever & made impressive showings at several meets. They won at Carroll and Wilbur Wright & finished respectably in the Dayton Sectionals and the Pittsburgh, Brookville, & Bethel Invitationals. Next season the team will be more Mercurial than ever.

The 1974 Alter Cross Country Team included: KNEELING LEFT TO RIGHT Rick Hull, Captain Chuck Bertini, Terry Devoe, STANDING LEFT TO RIGHT Sean Barrett, Doug Berger, Bill Stachler, Joe Madden, Greg Kohls, Jay Eberle, Mike Kunesh, Don Thomas, Jack Kohls, Bill Dirkes, Rob Brownsberger, Jim Kohls, Jim Bayer, and Coach Trick.

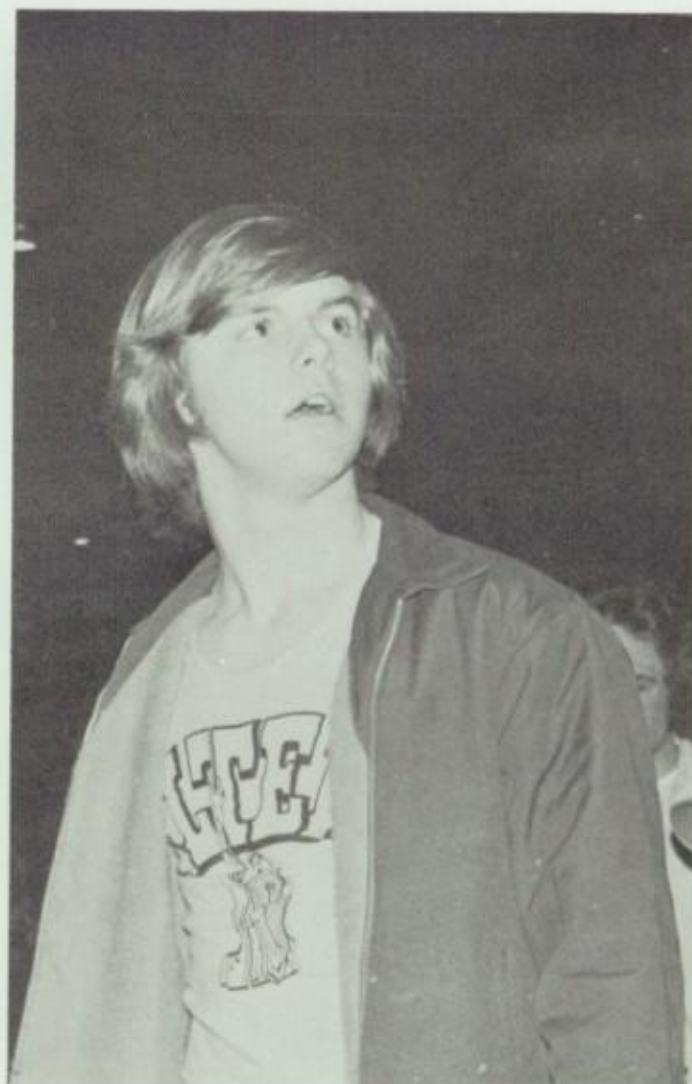

Alter's Nucleus for 1974-75 centered about Student Council President Tony Huesman, Vice-President Ed Brown, Secretary Mary Walsh, & Treasurer Colleen Young. Under moderator Father T. Meyer, or, with the moderation of Friar Meyer, their explosive activity included boppin', hoppin', toppin' dances, mutual exchanges and arranges, and intellectual and cultural encounters in the gym. And their haven off the gym hall was a realm fit for a Duke!

NWARD

- moving towards unknown places and experiences, anticipated with delight, confusion, and perhaps fear; remembering where we're coming from yet never seeking refuge in the past. Seniors are not gone, but moving onward toward their own destiny.

KATHLEEN MARIE BERUS: Love is like being afraid of fear or sad of happiness it exists, but is not held. It's felt but not seen. As a piece of gold, it can be lost, but no ash is left, no monument made. Love is missed by only the heart, is known by only the soul. In love there is no sin, no wrong and no need for regret. There is giving and taking and no moment when these balance. Love is not a thought but a feeling, not a kiss but a meaning, not a desire but a touch.

JAMES W. BLUM: Football 1, Track 1,2; Key Club 4; Intramurals 1,2,3,4

"Good morning," said the fox.
"Come and play with me," proposed the Little Prince.
"I cannot play with you," the fox said. "I am not tamed."
"What does that mean — 'tamed'?"
"It means to establish ties."
"To establish ties?"
"Just that," said the fox. "To me, you are still nothing more than a little boy who is just like a hundred thousand other little boys. And I have no need of you. And you, on your part, have no need of me. To you, I am nothing more than a fox like a hundred thousand other foxes. But if you tame me, we shall need each other. To me, you will be unique in all the world. To you, I shall be unique in all the world . . ."

Dearest mother,

After 14 years of being engaged Nathen and I are finally married! Now don't faint 'til after I explain. Ya see, all those years I wrote those letters none of it was really true. (In other words there is no Nathen Jr. but if there had been Nathen says he would have won that football game just the same.) Nathen is the kind of guy that has to think once or fourteen times before he decides to end his bachelorhood. He says that getting married is not like jumping into a kettle of fish.

PAROLED BUT PERFECTED TO THE TUNE OF POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE

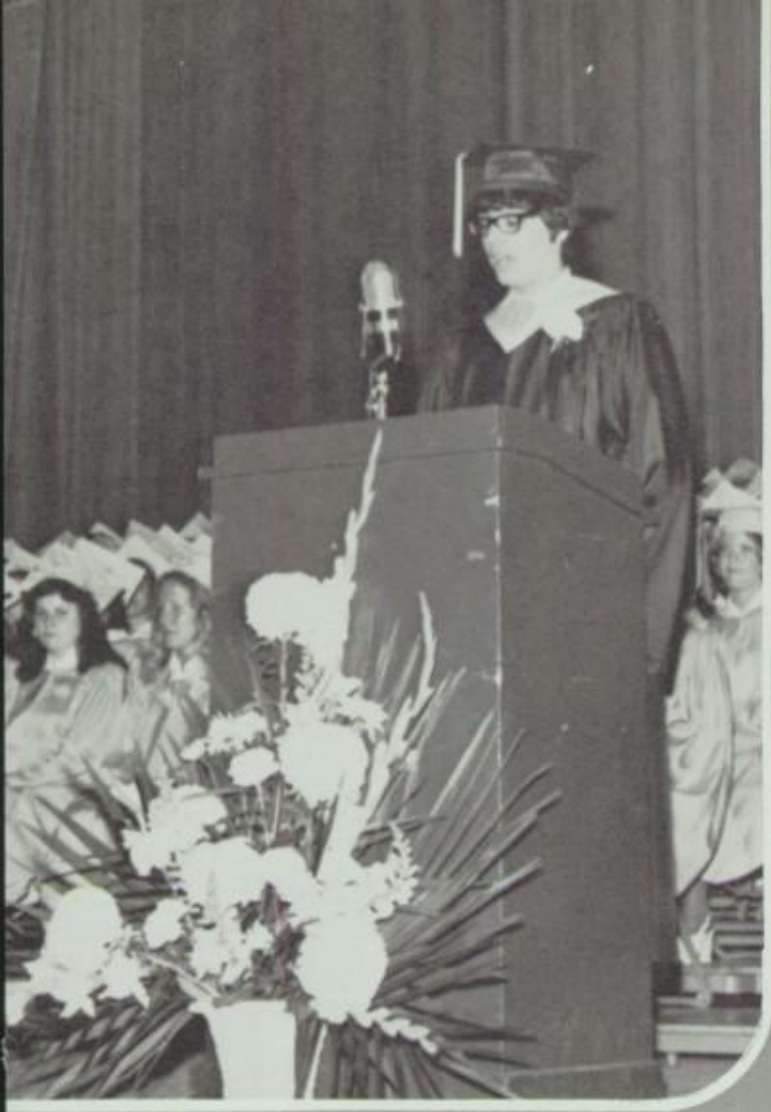

May 24, 1975 was the culmination of four years of life at Alter and for many the beginning of new lifestyles, responsibilities and adventures as 300 seniors received their diplomas. Speeches were given by the class valedictorian, Mary Ann Sprauer, and the salutatorian, Jim Bovenzi, who tried to express the hopes for the future for the class of '75. Armed with past experiences Alter's graduates are ready for the world, but what remains to be seen is the world ready for them.

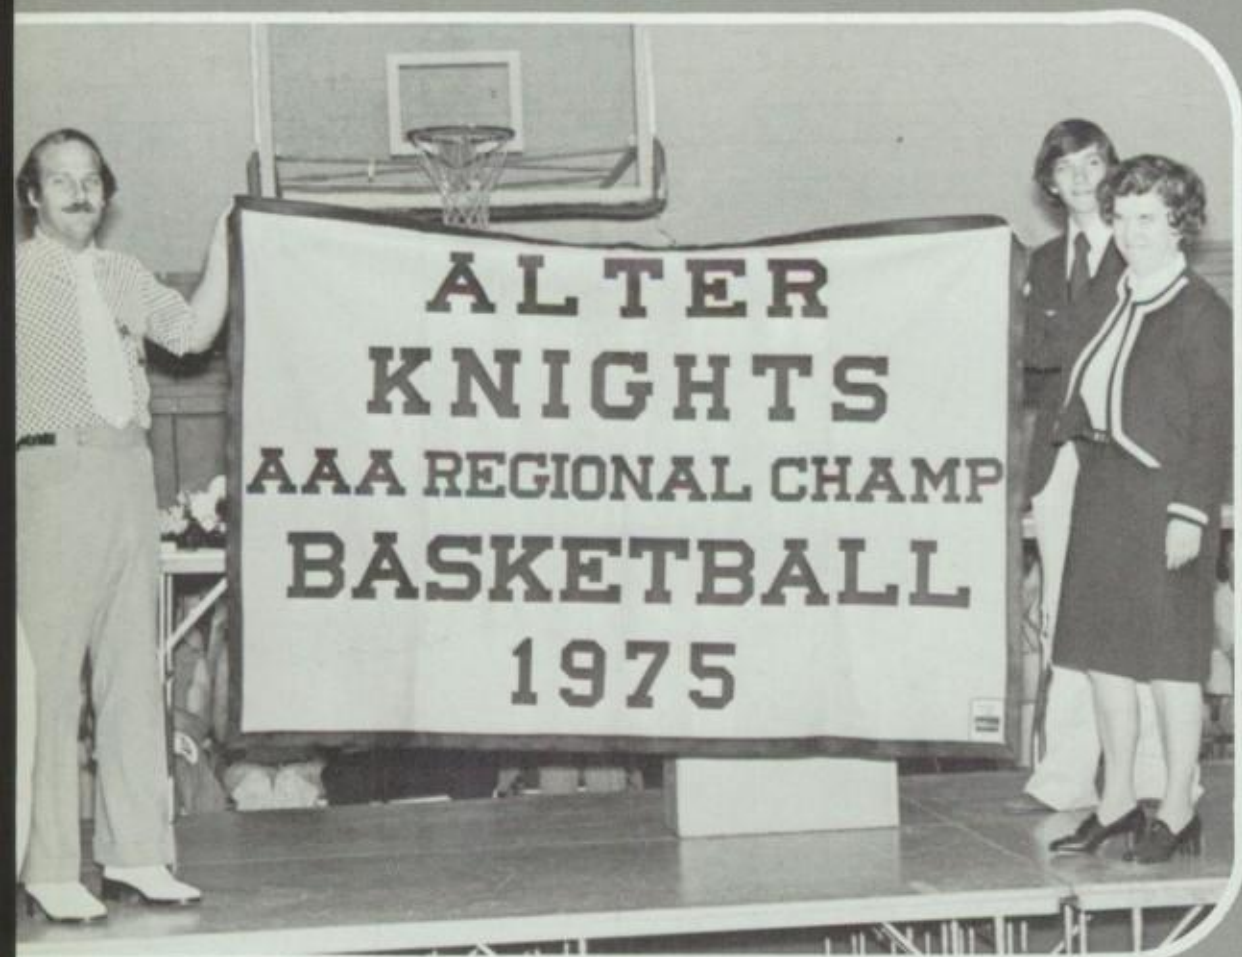

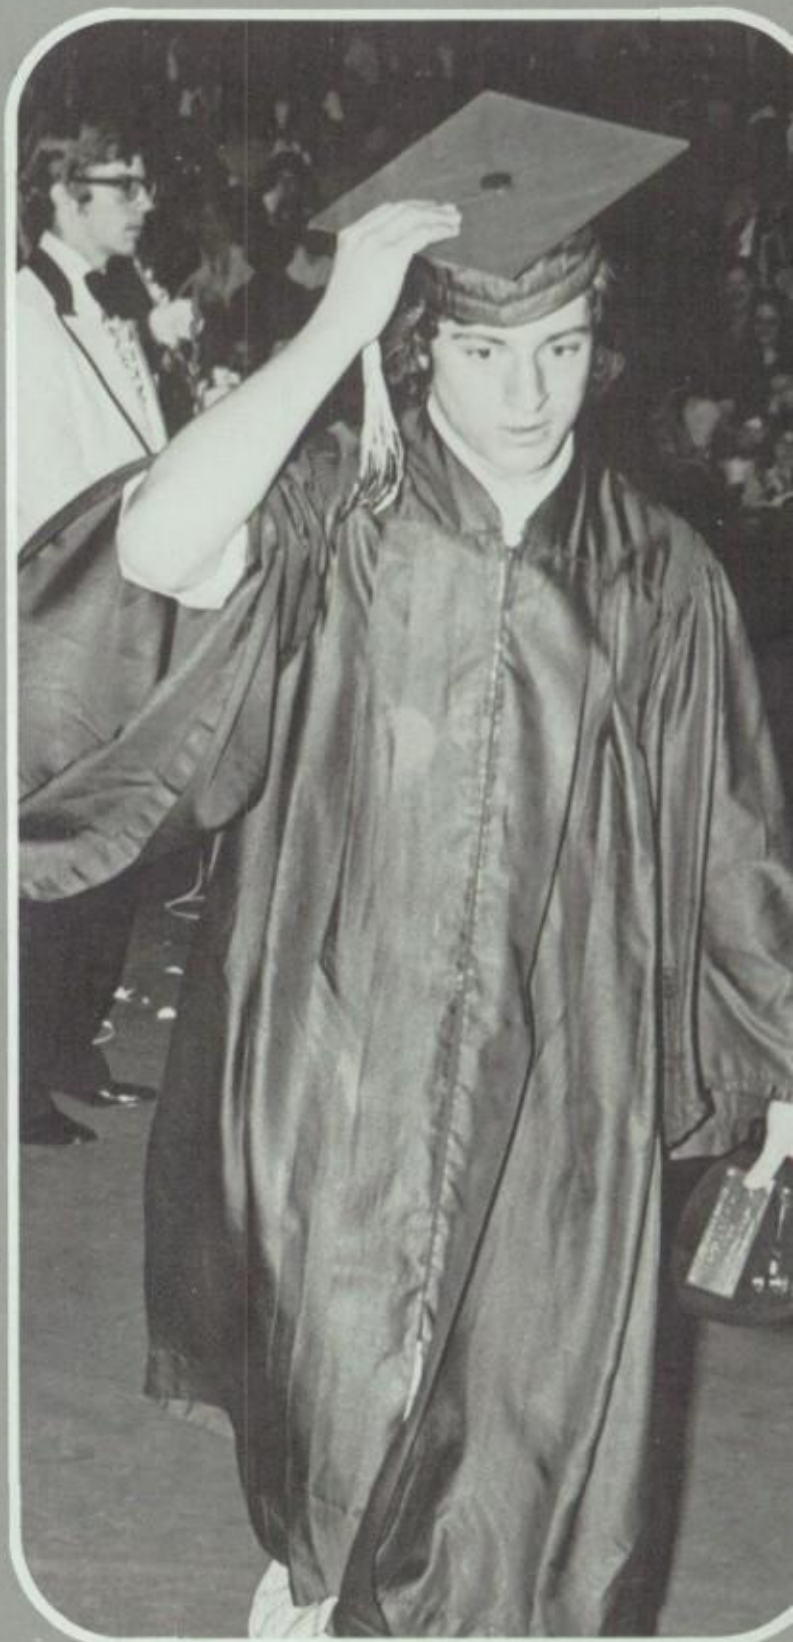

Nervous anticipation: fiddling with caps, trying to keep them balanced and on during that long walk down the aisle, worrying about staying aligned with your partner and trying to walk dignified when all you want to do is run. This is part of graduation too. Impatient to get out yet reluctant to leave.

I present to you the class of 1975

On May 23, 1975, Alter held an award assembly to honor those seniors who had in some way shown special abilities and talents and had helped to made Alter High School a better place. Highlights included a return visit by Alter's first principal, Fr. Haskamp, and the presentation of a AAA Regional Basketball Championship banner by Cassano Enterprises.

Special awards given to the outstanding seniors of the Class of 1975 include: KIWANIS CLUB AWARD Kim Moultney
CITIZENSHIP AWARD Andrea Ziegert KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS JOHN ERNST AWARD Peter Kuntz
HINKLE TROPHY Chuck Bertini KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MARIE-JOSEPH AWARD Mary B. Sjostrom
ARCHBISHOP ALTER AWARD Robert Yux KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS RELIGION AWARD Lori Meyer

music that combines several simultaneous parts of individual design in contrast to monophonic music which combines several voice parts based on a single dominant melody. There you go, plebeians. In other words, "polyphony" is like those kaleidocopes we used to turn as kids where all the pieces were the same only different and every time you turned it it all looked different, just like Kaleidoscope: Sound Spectrum '75, voices, harmonies, dissonances, colors complementing, contrasting, enlightening, exciting to ears.

RAWHIDE

RAWHIDE is the exterior covering of that object which is the subject of these six pages. You know what it is . . . it's little & round & white (until it's been hit around with a wooden stick. Then it's gray.) A couple of teams chase it & throw it & hit it & catch it. Sure has a lotta charisma for a . . . ? uh . . . a baseball

The reserve baseball team was lead to victory by captain Craig Valentine with the support of a no-hitter by pitcher Tim Hudson against Wilbur Wright. They had the most reserve wins in one season by beating 5 of the 12 teams, outplaying Wilbur Wright 10-0, Carroll 6-2, Fairmont East 6-4, Centerville 9-5, Chaminade - Julianne 8-1. Their record was 5 wins and 7 losses.

STANDING: LEFT TO RIGHT: Coach Joe Kail, B Kissell, D Miller, M Condron, C Freeman, M Frericks, J Pequignot, B Carey, J Nowicki, B Marshall, B Fink, S Meyer, KNEELING: G Schoettmer, J Hilgeman, M Schramm, R Jones, B Krul, B Schaefer, D Seman, B Dearbaugh, C Bertini, M Collins.

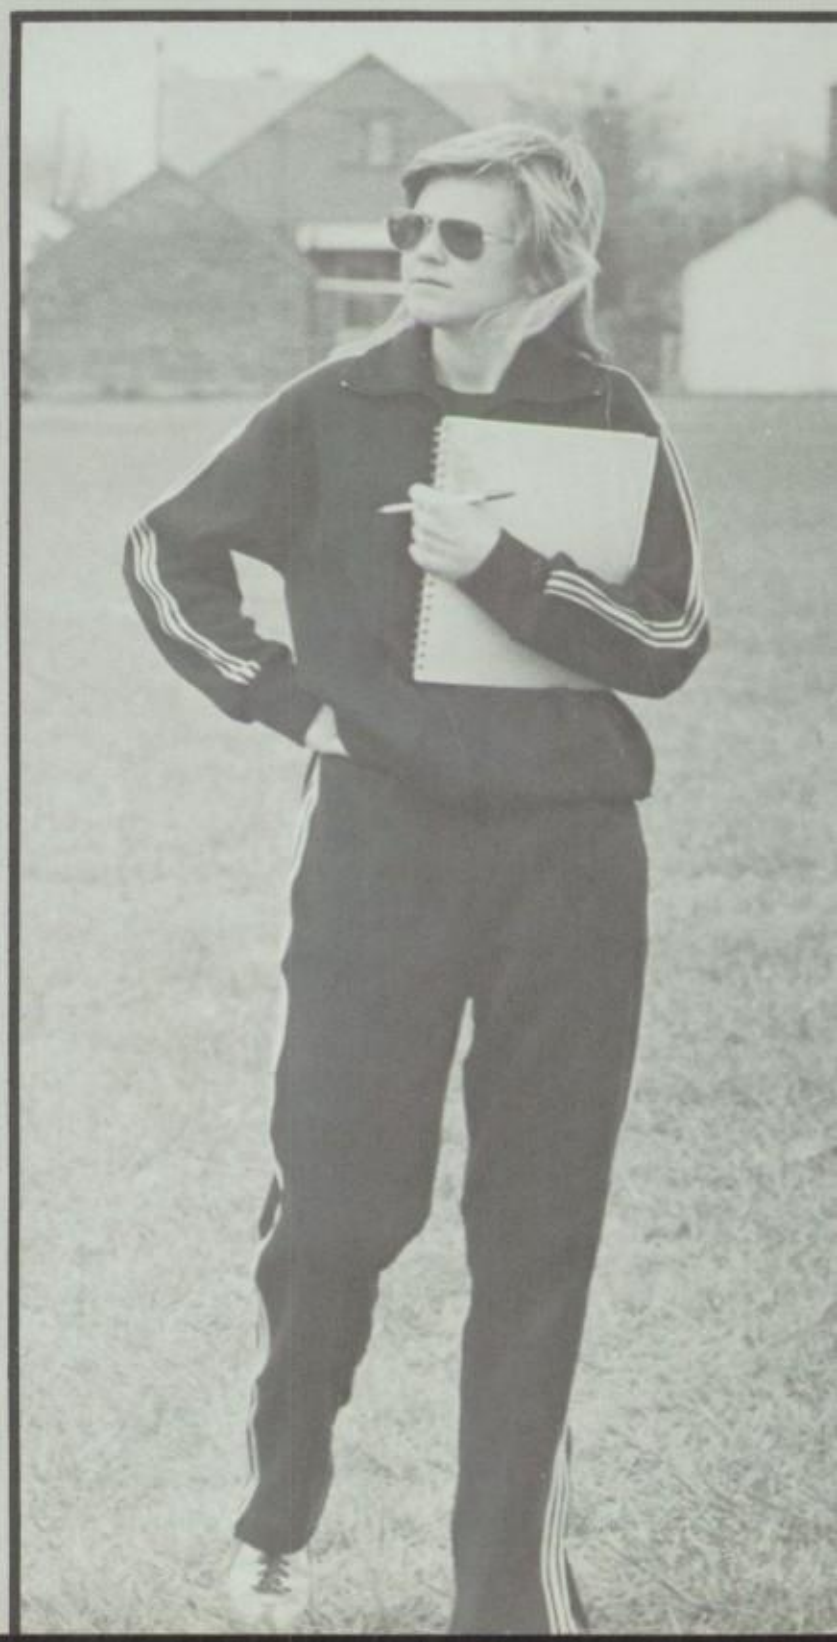

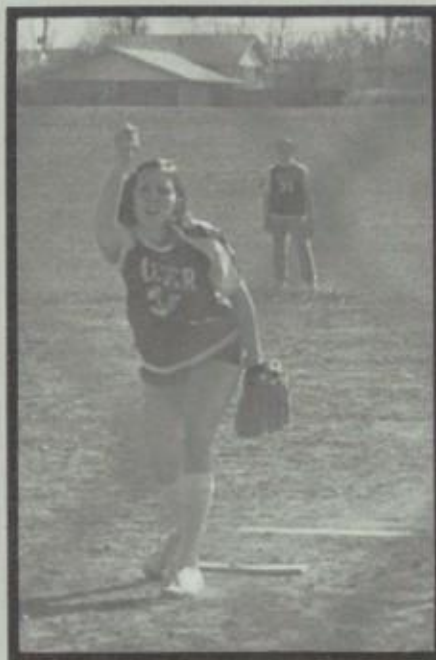

The 1975 team was, by far, the best hitting team that the school has ever produced. This squad set new school records for most runs scored, most hits, most doubles, most triples, most home runs, most stolen bases, and highest team batting average in a season. The team was noted for it's hard work, determination and ability to come from behind to win. The 14 wins were the second most for any Allen team. In 1976, six lettermen will return (5 of whom were starters in 1975), giving the baseball program hopes for an even better season.

Girl's softball again made a showing for Alter. The team had it's ups and downs ending with a record of 3 wins and 5 losses. It was coached by Mrs. Elizabeth Smith and Cindy Klosterman. Some of the practices were rained out unabling the girls to perfect their talents for the games. The most valuable player of the year was Gail Fitzgerald who added much to the team. With many of the players re- turning next year, the team hopes for an even better season. (Good Luck!)

RED RED RED RED RED RED RED:
NOT A COMMUNIST ALERT, OR A FLARE CODE OR A CRISIS OF THE HEART BUT OUR FACES BECAUSE . . .

Dear Members of GAA, Home Economics Club, Art Club, Varsity A, and Future Teachers of America, as well as any Student we mis-identified, stapled, spindled, mutilated, or otherwise lost in the proverbial shuffle, and any date we succeeded in garbling or omitting,

We have taken our horoscope readings for twenty consecutive days to try to figure out why. We have consulted our spiritual advisor who doubles as a traffic controller outside Dwight L. Barnes Junior High. We have likewise probed our freudian reserves in a whole-hearted attempt to understand our motives and/or possible rationale. Alas, we have few leads as to the true nature of our pathological memory disfunction in your regard. However, the problem lies not in our stars but in ourselves.

At first we thought it was our (a) lack of culture, Art Club, for we are unable to draw a straight line even with a crooked ruler and to us Impressionism sounds like charades (b) male chauvinism, Home Economics Club and GAA, for we are all too prone to Monday Night Football and stockcar racing and yes, we confess to letting THEM open doors for us and even stapling our ripped out skirt hems rather than look a needle in the eye (c) liberated women photographers, Varsity A, what more can we say except that to tell the truth, you still get coverage in all the sports stuff (d) myopic vision, mutilated or misapprised students, for it IS difficult to decipher faces the size of a large hatpin head.

Therefore we make a confession, YEARBOOK STAFFS AND MODERATORS ARE ONLY HUMAN. Shocking, isn't it? But true. We extend all apologies right now with sincere regard for what might have been. We hope Excalibur '75 makes up for our oversight in its overall excellence.

Sincerely,

Excalibur '75 Staff

RECOGNITION

At this point in the procession of EXCALIBUR'S many pages we would like to present the names of those students whose hard work and interest resulted in their receiving various awards and recognition for academic achievement. Their accomplishments are deserving of praise and are herewith put forth for all to appreciate.

SEXY SYNCHRONIZATION

SYNCHRONIZATION-the process of something happening or taking place at the same time or instant. This is what Alter's Lancerettes demonstrate in each one of their shows whether it be during football or basketball season. Attention!!

LANCERETTES

This season proved to be a very profitable one for the Lancerettes. They did very well at the contests they participated in and Captain Patty Spisak represented the Dayton area at the National Drill Team Competition in California. Denise DonMoyer was Lancerette of the year.

June 14, 1975

Dear Susie, Katie, & Crew,

Well, we finally made it through the 1974-75 EXCALIBUR, and believe me there were times when I thought we'd never make it. All the rushing around you did to cover the many activities during the year really paid off. Even though you worked under a tight time schedule, often times developing and processing film late into the night, the photography in this year's book is excellent and you deserve credit for a job well done.

We'll just have to wait until the books come out in the fall to get an overall picture of the entire yearbook, but I think we can rest assured that all the staff put forth their best efforts in the creation of EXCALIBUR 1974-75.

Thanks again,
Andrea

unity

people they range from animals to gods. They pray for you and they prey on you. They want to be Everyone, Everywhere, Everything. Their restlessness fills them with wonderings and spurs them into wanderings. They cry for the moon and wail for a place in the sun. They try everything once and seldom stop to think twice. But with people all things are possible; without them, all things are impossible. To lose contact with them is to lose contact with life.

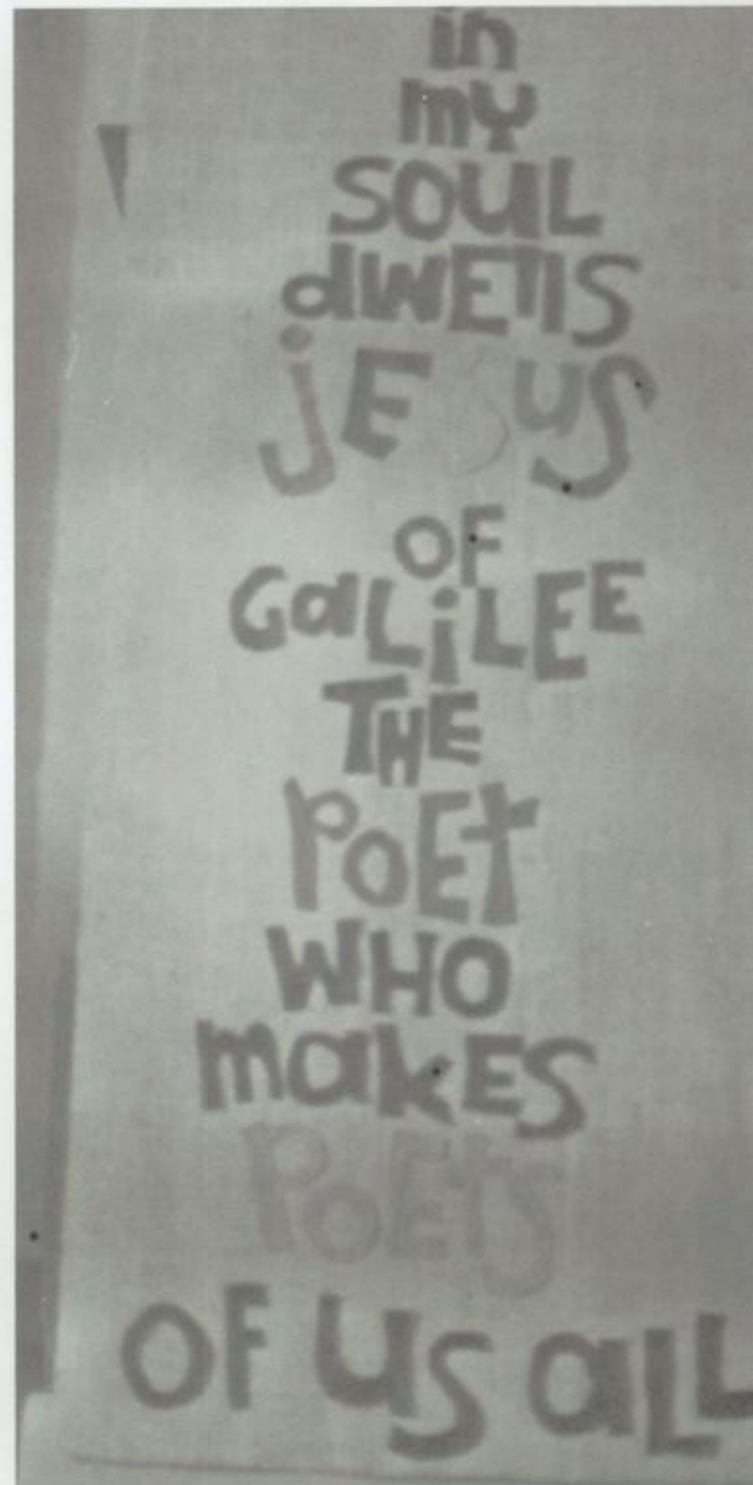

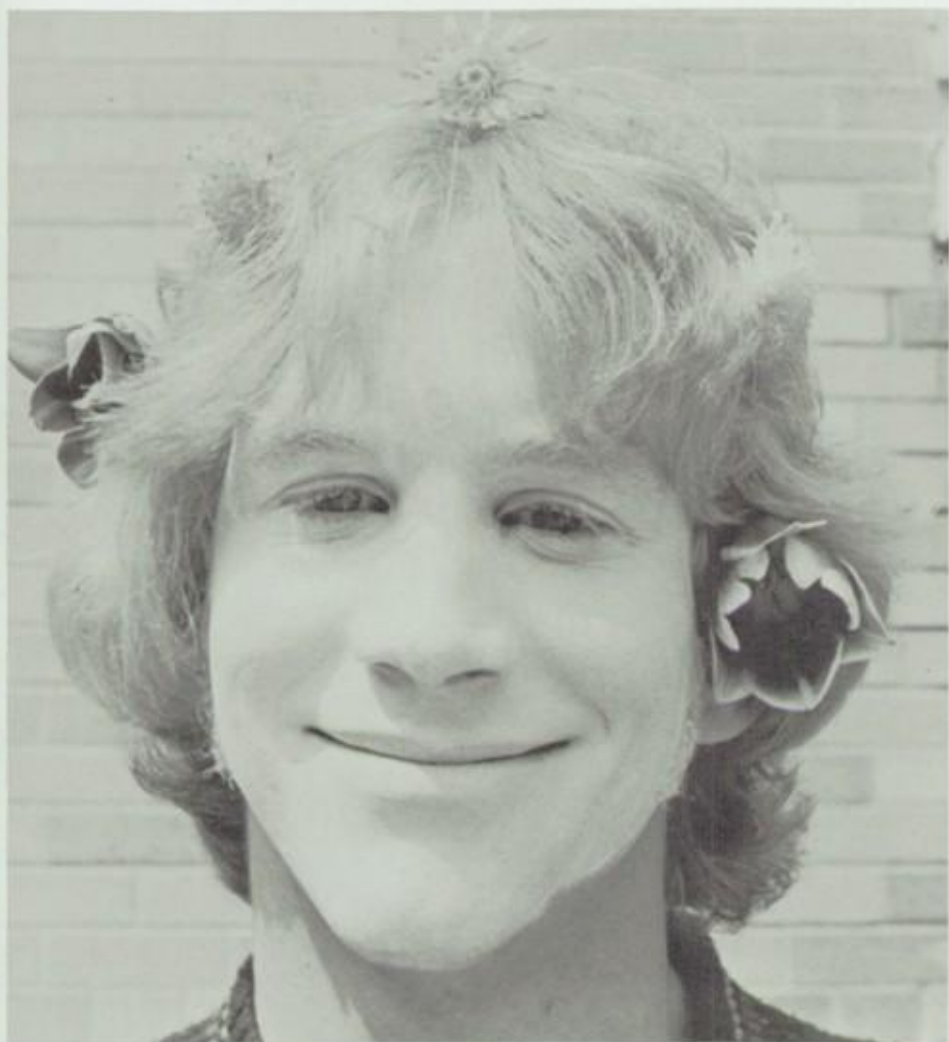

VALOR

facing life with valor, like the knights of old we promise always great ideals to hold. With our eyes on heaven, sword of faith in hand, the future face and with grace . . . in sun moon stars rain red pink green blue again children guess and more than a few that beneath a many-colored coat a Knight, THE Knight, guards Alter spirit, pride, tradition unbloody, unbowed.

vision

quantum leap between what only is and what can only be when persons and passion meet; why Don Quixote forsook not his quest for enough madness to snatch some sane thing from a universe gone mad with sanity; why christians keep returning to the center even when they and the cosmos cast the most eccentric circles.

VALENTINE-expression of one's affection for another, shown in many ways, be it a smile, a kiss, or a big night out with Daddy. The Father-Daughter dance, sponsored by the Cheerleaders, is a night many girls look forward to for months. John Buehler provided the music. Joanne Brehm and her father were chosen king and queen of the dance. Mr. Szabad and his daughter Cindy tripped the light fantastic to first prize in the dance contest. Many girls won door prizes by the luck of the draw. Turn around and she is two, turn around and she's four, turn around and she's a young girl going out the door.

Alter's team and fans were worth their weight in gold as the Knights finished their best season in the school's history with a 3rd district and 1st regional title and a seat in the state championship. Even though Alter didn't bring back the state title, "The Gold Rush" spirit continued during an appreciative assembly on the following Monday. As Coach Petrocelli apologized to the seniors for having failed to give them a state title he promised the underclassmen a future state championship. This season's accomplishments include:

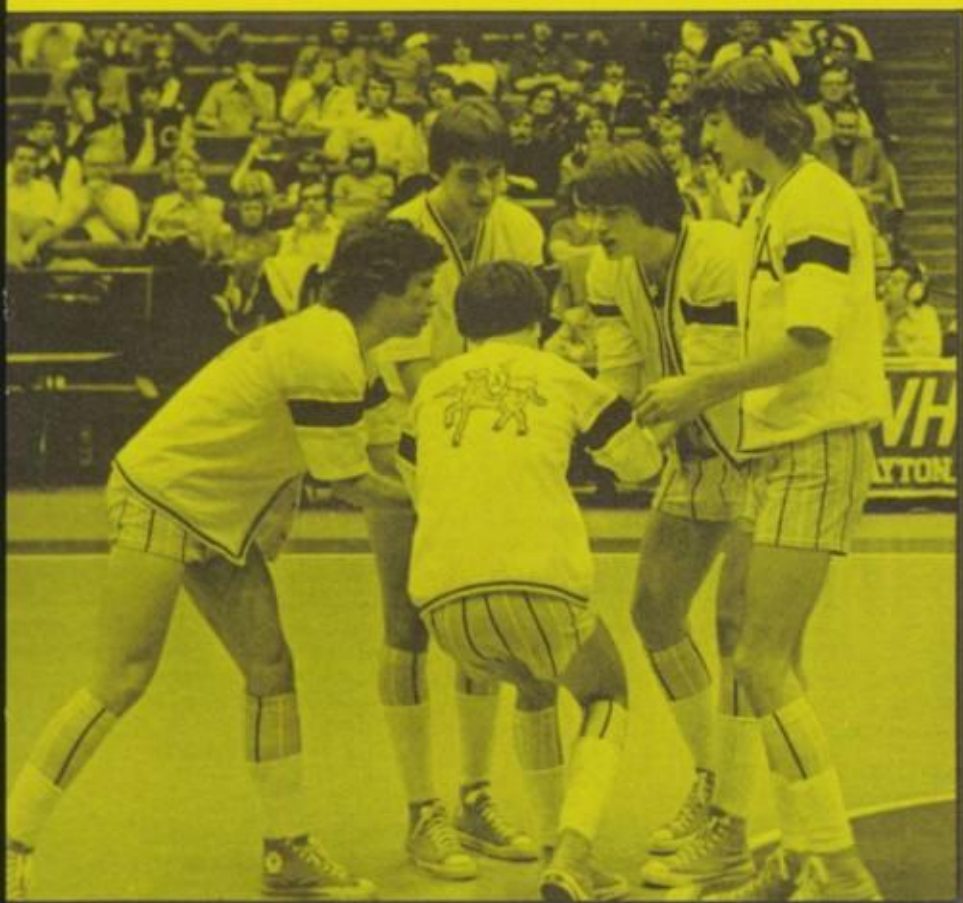

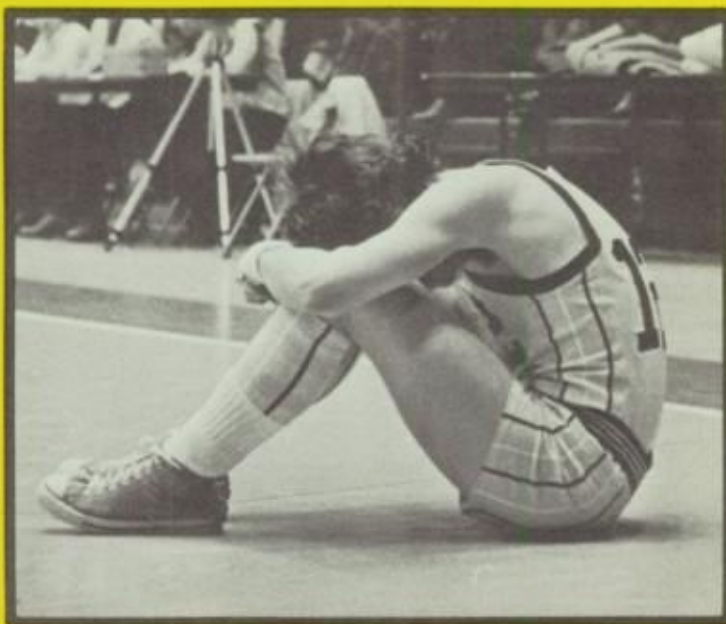

- MOST TEAM POINTS IN ONE GAME Alter vs Lima Catholic 114
- MOST CONSECUTIVE GAMES WON IN ONE SEASON 24
- MOST TEAM POINTS IN ONE SEASON 2056
- BEST FIELDGOAL PERCENTAGE IN ONE SEASON 53.1
- BEST FREE THROW PERCENTAGE IN ONE SEASON 73.1
- BEST TEAM POINT AVERAGE IN ONE SEASON 83.4

Zeitgeist

noun, German, usually untranslatable, essentially mystical term, like having visions, seeing what has never been seen or even imagined before; untranslatable . . . BUT undaunted even if untranslatable, ahem. ZEITGEIST: the unique creative urge rising from the collective experiences of the group in whom it resides; the IN-forming spirit that calls forth all that is best, highest, deepest in the total being of the collectivity; untranslatable; cannot easily be pinned down, the element of surprise: the ZEITGEIST of Alter . . . those moments out of Time when strange and marvelous things happen simply because we are together, the Spirit manifests itself in all its beauty precisely because we manifest our individual ZEIT-GEISTS to one another and out of such manifestation comes untold, unpredictable energy that flows between the members of the Alter community and transforms us into what we had hardly dared envision for ourselves alone, the ZEITGEIST that speaks and creates moments of union, of centering in those values, in those realities that are truly the most essential to human Christian growth singly and together . . . dancers, singers, weepers, laughers, players, visionaries, ordinaries, them, us, fools, wishers, liars, dreamers, persons unique in all the world amen amen.

ZAIBATSU

according to Bibsi Coleman, Coleman Exclusi, Excom Hermosil, Hermodoup Lally, Lalo Montpar, Montpet Piranesi, and Piranha Scurfy, noted Encyclopedia Brittanica economists, "zaibatsu" is a family-controlled commercial combine of Japanese vintage. However, we have it on excellent authority that it is one of the few (two, to be exact) "Z" -words applicable to Ads.

EDITOR'S NOTE: I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all those people who, by their efforts, helped to make EXCALIBUR 1974-75 what it is. Though it would be impossible to mention everyone, special thanks is extended to our moderator, Sr. Julia, to Fr. Haemmerle, and to the entire staff for their dedication and hard work. The staff feels that this is one of the best yearbooks in Alter's history and we hope that you enjoy reading EXCALIBUR 1974-75 as much as we enjoyed putting it together. Andrea L. Ziegert
